Tonk Talk by Mark T. Tonkery

Winning Souls for Christ

Proverbs 11:30 states, “The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that wins souls is wise.”

The New Testament continues to emphasize the winning of souls by teaching us to make disciples in Matthew 28:19 and Mark 16:15-16. Once one has been won to Christ, we are to continue being taught. In Acts 2:42 it tells us to be devoted to the apostles’ teaching, fellowship, breaking bread and prayer. Acts 8:39 tells us to continue to rejoice in our salvation. In I Corinthians 1:17 it tells us to keep preaching the gospel. When each Christian makes disciples, teaching the gospel, fellowshiping, praying, rejoicing and serving we will win souls. According to Acts 2:47 and Acts 16:5 the church continued to win souls daily.

When was the last time you “won a soul for Christ”? When was the last time you taught someone the scriptures about how to become a Christian? When was the last time you saw a person baptized and become a new creation in Christ? When was the last time you at least invited someone to worship services?

We have seen the church winning souls in the past and now it is time to get back to winning souls for Christ. Unfortunately, too many Christians are just baptized and are not involved in the work of winning souls for Christ. Far too many Christians, have not been taught that Christianity is a total conversion and commitment to the cause of Christ, which includes winning souls for Christ.

One’s conversion is just the beginning of one’s salvation. God wants our whole hearts, minds, bodies, and actions. He wants us to be totally converted to His cause. God wants every Christian doing and modeling His will in our daily lives. “I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me.” (Gal. 2:20) Can this statement be our statement, have we crucified our souls, minds, hearts, bodies, and actions with Christ? Are we totally committed to Christ and winning souls for the Kingdom of God?

DOUG'S DISCUSSION

The Work of God's Fingers

I have been fascinated with space ever since I was a kid. Call me a nerd if you must, I just can't hide my sense of wonder when I consider all that God has made. I still remember being introduced to the planets in grade school. After the first lesson I ended up heading to the library to get everything they had on space so I could binge read planet books. If I remember right the teacher ended up letting me teach a class on one of the planets. The nerdiness was (is?) indeed great. However, before you judge too harshly don't forget that David was amazed by the same thing. He once said "When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, what is man that you are mindful of him, the son of man that you care for him?" (Psalm 8:3-4).

Can you picture God shaping a planet or a star with His fingers? I mean . . . I'm a little proud of myself when I make something that slightly resembles a horse out of Play-Doh. That's the limit of what I can make with my fingers, but God designs galaxies containing billions of stars! He definitely wins all the art contests. I become a little sad when Atheists and Agnostics try and capture the wonder of space for their own purposes. There's a message out there that goes something like "you don't need God to satisfy your sense of wonder, just look at the stars." How sad to try and separate the creation from the creator! Instead of being a distraction FROM God the stars and planets should point us TO the one God who made it all.

What is in your heart when you consider the heavens? What goes through your mind when you look at the moon and the stars? My prayer is that your heart and mind turn toward God. I pray you are compelled to give God glory. Don't make the mistake of looking at the work of God's fingers and not coming to the obvious conclusion that God is great. When the people of the past failed to give God glory for these things "their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened" (Romans 1:21). So yes, I love space. I always have. But what I love most about space is the lights of the heavens point me to the light of God. Give God praise if that's also true for you.

Betty Lamb was recently honored with a certificate for her 23 years of service as a American Red Cross volunteer. She has been a great asset to our church Blood Drives for many years.

Thank you, Betty!

HUGE THANK YOU TO OUR DONORS!
OUR BLOOD DRIVE
WAS A SUCCESS!

We had a very good Blood Drive this time. We were able to collect 25 pints. This will directly help 75 or more people.

Thanks to all who gave and those who worked the drive: Pat and Bev Rine, Verna Huber, Mike Wade, Jo Goldsmith, and Karen Life. A special thanks to Sandy and Jim Hughes for the cookies and John Life for helping with the clean up.

The next Blood Drive will be August 26.
Plan now to donate.

Minute of Meditation by Mark T. Tonkery

Heard on 910 AM WLTP

On September 7, 1995, Cal Ripkin, shortstop for the Baltimore Orioles, became the first man in baseball history to play in 2,131 consecutive games. When asked why he was always there and never missed a game, he said it was because he wanted to be there.

There was a lady from Augusta, Georgia, who had not missed Bible class or worship services in 44 years. Then there was a man who was an elder of the church in New Orleans. He owned a chain of restaurants, and had been president of 33 different business and civic organizations. Yet, he never missed one service of the Church.

Why did these two individuals never miss worship services? The same reason Cal Ripkin never missed a game; because they wanted to be there.

Whether we realize it or not, 99% of all we do in life is because we want to. In the Bible, Joshua said, "Choose you this day whom you will serve" (Joshua 24:15)

I am Mark T. Tonkery with a minute of meditation from the Camden Avenue church of Christ where you are always welcome.

Show your appreciation to others.

- Let Mark and Doug know that we appreciate them and what they do in their work at Camden Avenue. Let's not forget their families. We love and appreciate them.
- Show your gratitude to our Elders. Pray for them.
- Let Wes know we appreciate all he does for us.
- Thank the deacons for their work.
- Let the folks that sit around you know that you are glad to worship with them.
- Let your family know you appreciate and love them.

Everyone likes to be appreciated....family, friends, co-workers.
